Mission Statement: To provide affordable Biblical counseling and train lay counselors in offering Biblical guidance

Services: Professional & Lay Counseling for: Parenting, Family Relationships, Marriage Preparation, Marriage, Addiction, Grief, Anxiety
Workshops, Seminars, Support Groups, Retreats, Bible Studies

What is the Need? The Christian Church needs a trusted theological resource for pastors and congregations to partner with for their professional counseling needs

What does a Biblical counselor do?

- Is dependent upon God (John 15:5)
- Looks to Christ for strength (II Peter 1:3)
- Believes change is possible (Mark 10:27)
- Listens and prays for you (James 5:16)
- Trusts God for change (II Cor. 3:18)
- Acknowledges sin (Rom. 3:23)
- Encourages restoration (Gal. 6:1-3)
- Points to Jesus (Heb. 4:15)
- Supports repentance (Luke 5:31-32)
- Helps set God-pleasing goals (Gal. 1:10)
- Speaks the truth in Love (Eph. 4:15)
- Teaches forgiveness (Matt. 18:22)
- Promotes peace (Rom. 12:17-19)
- Sees your worth in Christ (Eph. 2:8-10)
- Inspires service to others (Rom. 12:9-13)
- Shares hope of heaven (Phil. 3:19-21)
- Doesn't give up (Gal 6:9)
